CAMPUS TOURS

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS/ADMISSIONS

Rosenwald Hall 1101 E. 58th St. (on Main Quad) collegeadmissions.uchicago.edu

The University of Chicago Admissions Office, housed in Rosenwald Hall, offers both information sessions and campus tours daily. Information sessions begin at 9 a.m. and tours at 10 a.m., with afternoon time slots offered from August to November. Walk-ins are welcome, but the Admissions Office asks that you register online at collegeadmissions.uchicago.edu. All ages welcome!

TIP: Booth, UChicago Law, Harris, SSA, and the Graduate Admissions Office all offer their very own tours and visit programs for prospective students! Consult the division's website directly.

ALUMNI TOURS

alumniandfriends.uchicago.edu

Alumni at the University of Chicago and their guests can arrange private walking tours through the Alumni Association. Tours are by appointment only and can be scheduled by email at alumniassociation@uchicago.edu, or by calling 773-702-2150.

LIBRARY TOURS

lib.uchicago.edu

The University of Chicago's Library System offers a variety of tours for prospective graduate students, visiting scholars, school groups, and more. To schedule your tour of any campus library, please visit lib.uchicago.edu. From there, be sure to select "Information for Visitors" under the "Using the Library" section to begin your process.

TIP: Go to visit.uchicago.edu/chicago.shtml for Chicago tours, attraction information, and descriptions of the 77 Chicago neighborhoods!

CAMPUS MUSEUMS

arts.uchicago.edu/explore/museums-and-galleries

Several of the University of Chicago's on-campus museums, such as the Smart Museum of Art and the Oriental Institute Museum, offer their own docent-led tours. Reservations are required in advance, but can easily be made through the respective websites.

CHICAGO ARCHITECTURE FOUNDATION

architecture.org/experience-caf/tours/

The Chicago Architecture Foundation offers over 85 tours of Chicago by boat, foot, bike, segway, train, and bus. Among them, a 2-hour walking tour of the University of Chicago led by an experienced docent. This $15 tour starts at the front entrance of the University's Bookstore (58th St. and Ellis Ave.). While not required, reservations are strongly recommended. For ticket inquiries, email tickets@architecture.org or call 312-922-8687.
